Date of Wedding: _____

Wedding coverage and proofs charge $1500.00. Initial deposit is $500.00. Payments can be made in the months leading up to the wedding. The remaining balance is due one month prior to the wedding date.

Cancellation of wedding requires forfeiture of initial $500.00 deposit. Any payments made over the deposit amount will be refunded. Alternately, the deposit and any payments may be applied to another available date.

Digital files are the exclusive property of the photographer and will not be provided to the client under any circumstances.

Photographer and client agree that neither will permit the reproduction of any photographs for purposes of advertising, nor trade without the express written permission of the other. The photographer may, however, display prints on the interior or exterior of the photographer's studio and reproduce photographs in the photographer's own brochures, portfolios or web site.

Photographer agrees to return deposit to the client in the event of non-performance or non-delivery caused by the photographer. Client acknowledges that the dyes used in color photography, like all other dyes, may fade or discolor in time. Accordingly, client waves any and all claims resulting from such occurrences.

Photographer and assistant shall be the only persons permitted to photograph said wedding, except for the family and friends of the client who are guests at the wedding, provided said guests do not interfere with the photographer's execution of normal duties.
